We bring it all together!

We know small business and we are here to help you...

... with specialist advice and information you couldn't buy!

Business & Employment has a team of small business consultants who offer a range of business advisory and referral services to the small business sector in Tasmania, including existing small business operators and small business intenders. Our confidential services offer the advantages of local intelligence and contacts, combined with established external business networks and a sound knowledge of business principles.

We provide a range of free tools, guides and information to clients for a wide range of business issues. The most common issues raised by clients include:

- Marketing
- Business planning
- Employment issues (employer's obligations)
- GST and taxation issues
- Regulations and red tape
- Access to business networking opportunities
- Business set up issues
- Access to Legal and Accounting services (eligibility criteria and booking fees apply)
- Access to local contacts and professional services
- Government programs - advice and assistance to access

How can we provide business advisory and referral services to small business operators at no cost?

Business & Employment holds contracts with both the Tasmanian State Government and the Australian Government to provide these services to the Tasmanian small business sector. Our organisation has been delivering these services in Tasmania for more than 20 years and over this period we have made a significant contribution to the success and development of thousands of Tasmanian small businesses.

Our Small Business Consultants are based in our offices in Hobart, Launceston, Devonport and Burnie. To arrange a visit from one of our consultants, or to make an appointment in one of our offices across the state, please phone:

Hobart - 6235 5622 | Launceston - 6337 9999 | Devonport / Burnie - 6422 7777

The services provided by Business & Employment are partially funded by the Australian Government.
